

Patinas Lighting is Engaged Sponsor of Arts

The annual Plácido Domingo Classics international festival has been a huge success in 2018. The event was applauded among others by Florentino Pérez the president of Real Madrid CF and Viktor Orbán prime minister of Hungary. Maximiliano Gregorio Cernadas, Argentina's ambassador to Hungary stated that this high quality and well organized event was a possibility for Argentina to showcase its colourful culture.

At the festival's event it was the Oscar, Golden Globe, and Grammy winning star Gustavo Santaolalla who gave a concert ending in standing ovation. The artist who is best known for soundtracks of film sas Brokeback Mountain, 21 Grams, Babel, has had his first appearance in Hungary this year. He is said to be among the top 25 most influential Latino artists in the USA. His viral video from Budapest was seen by thousands throughout the globe.
